'BASINGSTOKE IS BETTER FOR BUSINESS'

BASINGSTOKE and Deane Borough Council's ambitions to attract more high-profile businesses to Basing View have been handed a massive boost following the decision to grant the business park Enterprise Zone status.

The move means that businesses that move to the area by March 2022 will not have to pay any business rates for five years – making Basingstoke a much more appealing destination for major retailers and investors.

Basing View is one of three key centres, along with Longcross Park in Chertsey and Whitehill and Bordon, to be included as part of the Enterprise M3 Local Enterprise Partnership (LEP), which is set to make combined savings of £178million over 25 years.

The funding will be used to further invest in the area's infrastructure, with the Enterprise Zone also paving the way for 60 potential businesses and 4,130 new jobs at Basing View Business Park.

And with the long awaited John

Lewis at Home and Waitrose finally opening its doors last month and the borough council continuing work on its £200m regeneration of the 13-hectare site, council leader Clive Sanders feels that "a strong message" has been sent to other businesses.

"This is fantastic news for Basing View, Basingstoke and Enterprise M3," said Cllr Sanders.

"It is evidence of great partnership working to boost the economic viability both locally and along the M3 corridor.

"The new Enterprise Zone will provide even more incentives for new businesses to come to Basing View and will make the council's investment in the regeneration of the town centre business quarter go even further."

He added: "Basing View is already proving a popular destination for new business following the recent opening of the Network Rail and South West Trains training campus and the John Lewis at Home and Waitrose combined store.

"But the Enterprise Zone and the benefits it will bring now send a strong message to companies that Basingstoke and Deane is better for business."

The Enterprise M3 LEP was one of 26 new Enterprise Zones to be created by chancellor George Osborne as part of his Autumn Statement announcement last Wednesday.

Basing View businesses are due to save around £275,000 each in retained business rates by becoming part of the partnership, while growth will also be achieved by marketing the Enterprise Zone's work with 5G, digital media and cyber security.

Enterprise M3 LEP chair Geoff French said: "This is absolutely fantastic news."

Decision due on Bramley housing

A FINAL decision on whether to approve controversial plans to build up to 50 homes in Bramley was made by the borough council last night after the Observer went to press.

The authority has received 136 separate letters of objection to the proposals for land north of Sherfield Road - while residents have also submitted a petition against the move that has been signed by 202 people.

Council officers had recommended that the application by developers Gleeson Strategic Land be approved ahead of last night's development control committee meeting.

But with Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council last year approving plans to build 425 homes at Razors Farm, off Cufaude Lane, and 200 new houses in Minchens Lane, Bramley Parish Council claimed the development would represent "further deterioration of the quality of life for residents".

A statement said: "This application would clearly exacerbate the existing strain on resources and all types of infrastructure which Bramley is currently experiencing.

By Christian Wilson

"Development of the site offers no tangible benefits to the local community and would represent a further deterioration of the quality of life for existing residents.

"The Bramley community calls upon the borough council to support us by not approving further inappropriate and unsustainable developments such as proposed in this application."

Plans would see a mixture of two, three and four-bedroom houses constructed as part of the £5million development, with the site set to follow Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's average rate of 40 per cent affordable housing.

But with the emerging draft local plan setting out the need to build 850 homes annually for the next 14 years, Bramley and Sherfield councillor Nicholas Robinson admitted that the houses "had to go somewhere".

"It's nobody's fault, it's just an unfortunate situation that is undoubtedly very unpopular locally," said Cllr Robinson.

"Bramley seems to be having to bail the rest of the district out, but unfortunately the land has got to be found and these houses have to go somewhere."

A spokesperson for Gleeson Strategic Land said: "The new accommodation will be of a high quality design, which complements and reflects the existing character of Bramley.

"The evidence gathering for the local plan identifies a high level of housing need locally in Bramley.

"This has led the council to identify a need to provide 200 houses in the village in the draft local plan, and we have been promoting the land north of Sherfield Road as the most suitable to accommodate this housing."

News Bites*Broken jaw

BASINGSTOKE: A 17-year-old boy suffered a broken jaw after being attacked in Basingstoke last week.

Three unknown male suspects assaulted the teenager at around 9.30pm last Tuesday as he walked between Halliday Close and the underpass that leads to Cranbourne Business and Enterprise College.

The victim sustained a double fracture of his jaw as a result of the attack, with his injuries being sufficient enough to require surgery.

It is thought that there were people in the nearby college building at the time of the incident who may have information, with police urging residents to contact Basingstoke CID on 101, quoting 44150409194.

Crime plan

HAMPSHIRE: Police and crime commissioner (PCC) for Hampshire, Simon Hayes, launched his updated police and crime plan on Monday.

The strategy identifies the achievements relating to the commissioner's four key priorities of improving frontline policing, supporting victims and witnesses and reducing crime, anti-social behaviour and re-offending since 2013.

Mr Hayes said: "The update to the police and crime plan presents a timely opportunity to showcase all that has been achieved since I have been in office and reiterates my vision to protect people and places."

To view the plans in detail, visit hampshire-pcc.gov.uk/protecting-people-and-places/my-police-and-crime-plan.aspx.

Enterprise status granted

• From front page

Mr French added: "The Enterprise M3 Local Enterprise Partnership has pulled out all the stops to ensure that this bid was successful and we were up against some stiff competition.

"This is a huge economic boost to the area - there will be more jobs, more businesses setting up and it will make the area far more attractive to investors.

"This is a really great time for the area and the digital economy and I look forward to seeing numerous success stories which will follow this significant announcement."

Basingstoke MP Maria Miller added: "This government recognises the importance of Basingstoke as a business centre and I welcome the chancellor's announcement as part of his Autumn Statement that Basing View has been designated as an Enterprise Zone.

"This will mean more government funding for our town to redevelop Basing View."

Police launch festive drink-drive campaign

RESIDENTS from across the county thinking of drinking and driving this month have been given a blunt insight into the consequences of their actions through a hard-hitting police drive.

Hampshire Constabulary and Thames Valley Police launched a joint month-long Christmas drink-drive reduction campaign on Tuesday in a bid to deter people from getting behind the wheel while under the influence over the festive period.

The force's 'Where will you end up tonight?' scheme is fronted by a promotional video emphasising the possibility of fatally injuring people on the roads or ending up in the morgue yourself after having a drink.

And with 10 people dying in

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

Hampshire and Thames Valley in the last year and a further 108 being seriously injured as a result of the crime, Hampshire Constabulary's Road Safety Sergeant Rob Heard has pleaded with residents not to make the same mistake.

"Hampshire Constabulary and Thames Valley Police remain dedicated to patrolling our roads to reduce the number of people who are killed or injured as a result of drink and drug driving," said Sgt Heard.

"To anyone driving this December, please stop and consider the consequences of a loved one being told the devastating news that your reckless actions have caused the trauma and tragedy of a fatal collision."

He continued: "The campaign asks 'Where will you end up tonight?', illustrating that you could end up in a mortuary having died in a road crash caused by drink-driving."

"That could be in various circumstances; you could be a drink-driver who caused a collision, or you could be a passenger in the car of the impaired driver."

The Joint Roads Policing Unit (RPU) will conduct random drink, speed and seatbelt checks across Hampshire throughout the days and nights during December as part of the campaign.

Officers breathalysed around 7,000 residents during the checks last December, with 150 people from the county being arrested after their results showed they were under the influence of alcohol or drugs.

Sgt Heard added: "Too many people are still taking the risk to drive whilst impaired."

"Nearly 7,000 people were breathalysed by police across Hampshire and the Isle of Wight last December."

"They could have caused a crash that killed or left someone injured with a lasting life-changing impact for themselves, family and friends."

"Do not be tempted to get a lift from someone who will be over the limit as you are putting yourself in danger too."

Attacker sought after woman targeted in Oakridge assault

POLICE have launched an investigation after a woman was assaulted close to a Basingstoke subway last week.

The 46-year-old victim was walking along a path near Freemantle Close in Oakridge towards Basing View at around 6.35am on Tuesday morning when the incident took place.

An unknown man then stepped out from behind some bushes and grabbed her forearm.

He started to drag her towards a nearby subway, before the woman managed to wriggle free and run away.

The suspect is described as white, approximately 6ft tall, and aged between 25 and 30-years-old.

He also had short, dark hair, an Eastern European accent, and had a marking on the right side of his face, near to his mouth.

DC Dawn Jenks of Basingstoke police station said: "We would like to hear from anyone who may have seen this man at the time, or who knows who he is."

"This is a well-used footpath and we would urge residents who use it be vigilant and report anyone who is acting suspiciously."

Anyone with information can contact DC Jenks on 101, quoting reference number 44150407860.

Man seriously injured in 'unprovoked' taxi attack

A 20-YEAR-OLD man was dragged from a taxi and assaulted during an attack in Basingstoke last Thursday.

The victim suffered serious but not life-threatening injuries during the incident outside the Premier Inn on Victoria Street at around 3.30am.

Three men are understood to have played a part in the attack, before fleeing the scene following the assault in the direction of New Street.

The suspects are all described as black with a slim or skinny build, with two wearing dark clothing with their hoods up and one wearing lighter coloured trousers.

Police are also trying to trace a silver Nissan Juke in connection with the three men as part of their investigations.

Detective Tracey West said: "Although this is a violent, unprovoked attack, it remains an isolated incident."

"We are looking to identify these men and the car we think they were driving prior to the incident."

"Did you or have you seen a vehicle like this driving around Basingstoke recently?"

"Do you live near New Road and did you see or hear anything?"

"We want to hear from you."

Anyone with information should contact police on 101, quoting 44150410520.

Scientist Stephen helps 'beat Ebola'

A MICROBIOLOGIST from Basingstoke hospital who spent five weeks fighting Ebola in Sierra Leone earlier this year has returned to the UK following his second trip to the country.

The West African nation was officially declared free of the deadly virus at the start of this month following the assistance of over 3,000 medical professionals from the UK.

One of the people to brave the threat of infection was Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital's Stephen Kidd - with the clinical scientist returning from Kenema on Thursday, November 26.

The 36-year-old spent 25 days in the major city - having previously spent five weeks in Makeni in January - with Stephen revealing his pride at having "beaten Ebola".

He said: "I've always wanted to go out and do something like this, and was never worried about catching it because there are some very professional people there tasked with keeping you safe."

"The people were very friendly and happy for British workers to be there, despite not having much themselves."

"It made me appreciate what

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

I have completely, and it was good to see people starting to get back on with their lives on my second trip.

"Children were dying of Ebola the first time I went, so I felt very proud that we had beaten Ebola the second time around."

Sierra Leone is one of three countries that were majorly affected alongside Liberia and Guinea - with 8,704 confirmed cases and 3,955 total deaths from the virus.

Ebola is a serious illness that can be passed on by coming into contact with an infected person's blood, body fluids or organs, and can cause decreased function of the liver and kidneys and both internal and external bleeding.

The government rewarded both military and civilian personnel who tackled the deadly disease in the three countries with an Ebola Medal, with Stephen, of Salisbury, being among those honoured with the accolade in October.

He added: "The problem isn't over, despite Sierra Leone being declared Ebola-free, as people are still dying from Malaria."

"It won't be a quick fix to solve, but there has definitely been a noticeable difference in the attitude of people there now."

"We had heard that the government might be handing out medals, but it was still very unexpected, and I am very chuffed."

Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT) chief executive Mary Edwards said: "We are very proud of Stephen and the other members of our staff who have gone out to Africa to help tackle the Ebola crisis."

"Stephen has brought back with him a lot of experience of working in less developed countries that will help him develop his skills back in the UK."

Praise for first dementia roundtable

CHARITY Alzheimer's Society teamed up with Basingstoke MP Maria Miller for the first ever roundtable event about dementia last Friday.

More than 20 people attended the meet at the Apollo Hotel in Basingstoke to speak about their experiences with the disorder.

A range of healthcare professionals spoke at the two-hour event, including Alzheimer's Society services manager for North Hampshire Kelly Inwood.

She said: "There was a fantastic turn out for the Dementia Roundtable and everyone who attended seemed to be engaged with the speakers."

"Dementia is one of the biggest health and care challenges our country faces."

"Too many people are not getting the support they deserve and are entitled to and too many families are struggling to get by."

"We need something at the end of this about the fact this needs to change."

An open discussion addressing the signposting of local services and post-diagnosis support also took place as part of the event, with Mrs Miller labelling the meet "incredibly valuable".

She added: "Dementia is one of our biggest health and care challenges."

UK WATER SOFTENERS

Established 20 years

Hard water is something we are all used to in Hampshire, although most of us have got used to putting up with it, many do not realise that you can do something about it. It furs up our heating systems, causing breakdowns, makes it more expensive to heat our homes and damages our appliances. The other problem with limescale is the constant cleaning of showerheads, shower screens, stainless steel sinks, the whole house can suffer where hard water is concerned. Limescale aggravates skin problems such as eczema and psoriasis. With a water softener no limescale will get into the house, which means you will have to do less cleaning, stop buying limescale related products, cut washing powder use by up to 75% and have less chance of large bills for potential future problems with your heating system and appliance breakdowns. If you were to purchase an ordinary softener you would have quite a large machine, which requires you to set clocks and lug around a 25kg bag of salt. The TwinTec S3 is different. It is small, requires no electricity and uses block salt (like two house bricks) instead of heavy 25kg bags. Harvey Softeners has been manufacturing softeners in this area for more than 35 years. Kevin Goody (UK Water Softeners) is one of Harveys top TwinTec dealers and was voted number two in the country last year.

Why is Kevin so successful?

He puts it down to extensive marketing and a great plumber with a wealth of experience having worked for the manufacturers for the last four years, good customer satisfaction and recommendations. Kevin has installed 4800 water softeners in homes in this area over the last twenty years and arranges everything from initial survey to installation. Kevin Goody also welcomes trade enquiries. We also service & repair Kinetico Water Softeners.

Advanced Digital Imaging

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

Residents have say on library plans

THOUSANDS of Hampshire residents have had their say on the future of the county's library service.

The county council has received more than 5,700 online and paper responses in the first three weeks of its 11-week public consultation on the subject.

A total of £1.7million is due to be saved by the authority by restructuring the service across Hampshire - with mobile library services set to be shut down.

Other changes could see the number of tier three libraries reduced across the county if the draft strategy is given the green light - putting the future of both Overton Library and Whitchurch Hampshire Library in danger as a result.

Council member for culture, recreation and countryside, Cllr Andrew Gibson, said: "We're very pleased that the consultation on our draft library strategy has sparked such strong interest."

"We are looking to make libraries more sustainable to meet residents' demands in future, reduce costs to the taxpayer and generate more income by introducing cafes where appropriate, or by sharing buildings and their costs with other partner organisations."

Residents have until January 16 next year to have their say - go to hants.gov.uk/library.

Application lodged for 100 new houses

A BOROUGH councillor has admitted that a proposal to build up to 100 new homes in Whitchurch would "keep the balance" of the town.

Plans for the development on land between Winchester Road and Micheldever Road have been submitted to Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council following lengthy discussions with residents.

A total of 37 one and two-bedroom, 34 three-bedroom, 20 four-bedroom and seven five-bedroom houses are included in the application - with 40 per cent being classed as affordable housing.

Developers David Wilson Homes (DWH) had initially planned to build 200 dwellings on the site - which borders Testbourne Community School and Longmeadow Sports Club - before halving the number in March after a period of public consultation.

And after previously raising concerns over plans to build 30 homes near Hurstbourne Station in west Whitchurch, Cllr Eric Dunlop has backed the proposals to develop land in the south.

He said: "One hundred homes at the moment seems to fit in with the general plans of the local council."

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

"From my point of view, it's part of a much bigger development of the future of Whitchurch for the next 25 years, and is an example of how we should look to expand in the south."

Cllr Dunlop continued: "It was right that we reduced the number by half, as 100 houses keeps the balance."

"But if the mad developments near the railway fall flat on their face, then we could discuss increasing the number as part of this project."

If approved, the one residential property on the 12-hectare site will be demolished as part of the application, while 15 of the new properties will be bungalows designed to fulfil Lifetime Mobility Standards.

Open space is also due to be converted into sports pitches and other recreational space as part of the plans, with 76 car parking spaces included in the proposals.

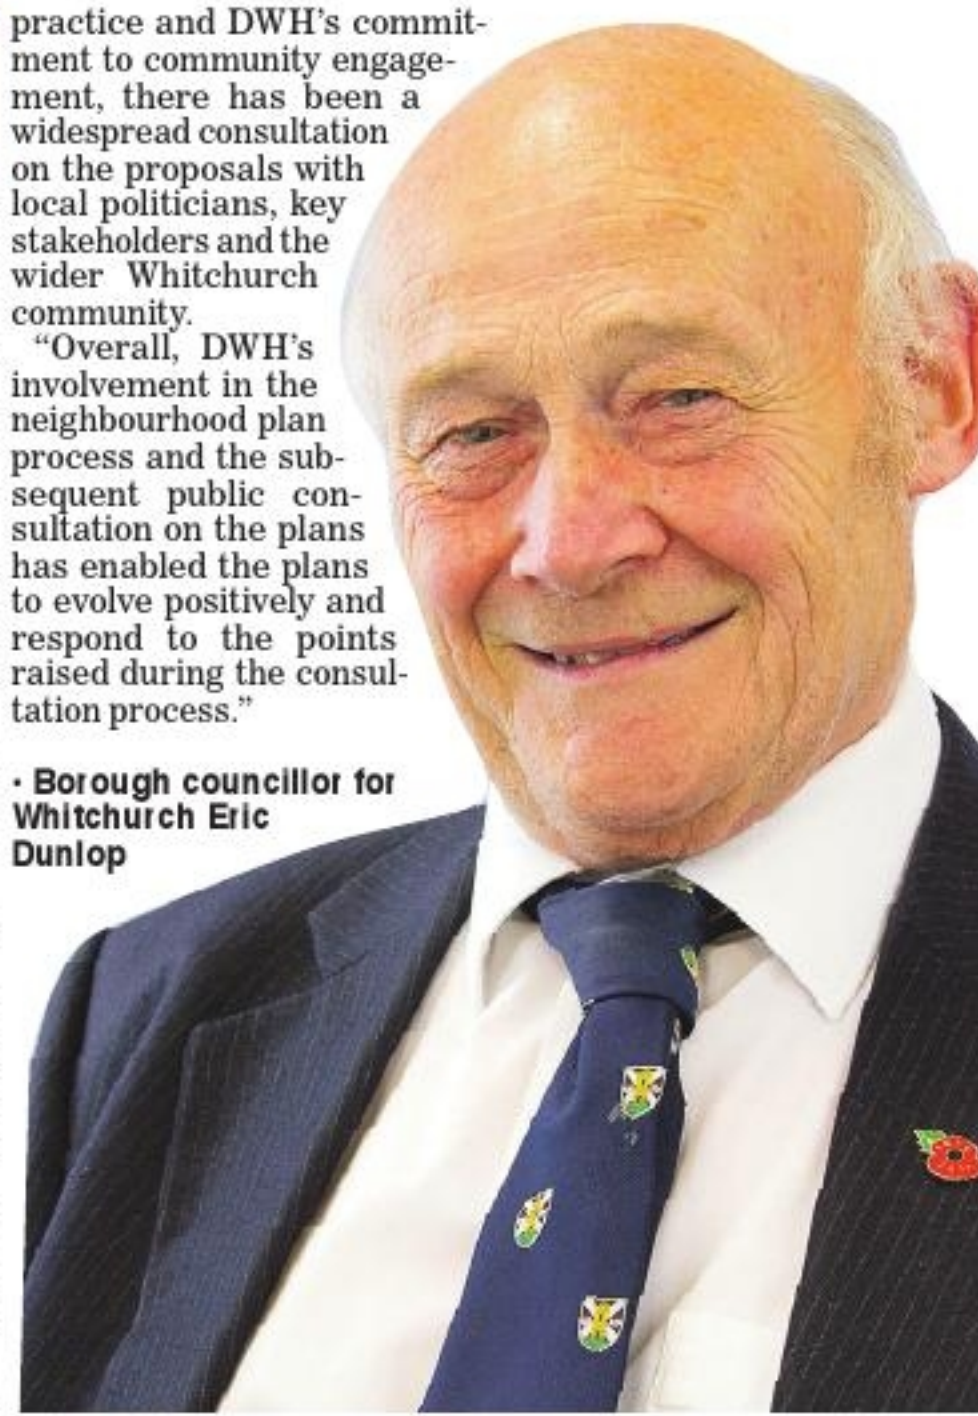

The application reads: "Whilst this application is for a much smaller development, much of the advice provided by officers is still relevant."

"In accordance with good practice and DWH's commitment to community engagement, there has been a widespread consultation on the proposals with local politicians, key stakeholders and the wider Whitchurch community.

"Overall, DWH's involvement in the neighbourhood plan process and the subsequent public consultation on the plans has enabled the plans to evolve positively and respond to the points raised during the consultation process."

Local plan

HART: Hart District Council has launched a new consultation inviting residents to have their say on the number of homes built in the borough.

Residents are being asked to give their view on what approach the council should take in delivering new homes in the area up to 2032.

Council leader Cllr Stephen Parker said: "I urge local residents and community groups to take part in this local plan consultation."

The consultation opened last Friday, and will run until Friday, January 15 next year.

The council will then be able to move forward to a draft local plan consultation, scheduled to be held next summer.

To view all of the consultation documents, visit the council's website: hart.gov.uk/consultations.

Police chief pleased with U-turn on cuts

HAMPSHIRE Constabulary will not now be hit with further cuts following a dramatic U-turn from chancellor George Osborne.

The county's police force had feared £10million of fresh cuts to the service over the next year ahead of last week's comprehensive spending review announcement.

But with Osborne stating in parliament that "now is the time to back our police and give them the tools to do the job", overall police spending will now be protected in line with inflation.

And following campaigns from Hampshire's force to halt cuts to the service that has seen a five per cent drop in the amount of officers since 2014, Chief Constable Andy Marsh has urged the service to "take this opportunity".

He said: "The public are the real winners in this decision. "Crime is changing and so is policing."

"The cuts of recent years have been hard and there remain difficult times ahead, but we must now take this opportunity."

Ch Con Marsh continued: "To meet the needs of the victims of tomorrow and to build morale among police officers and staff means we must keep innovating."

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

"This will create a sustainable future where we can deliver an even better service for a public whose expectations will have gone up as a result of this decision."

Last Wednesday's announcement means that the overall police budget will be increased by £900m by 2019/20, following a total of £80m cuts to Hampshire alone since 2010.

A total of 647 officers have lost their jobs in this time as a result, prompting the creation of Hampshire Police Federation's Cuts Have Consequences campaign, with chairman John Apter confessing to being "gobsmacked" by the chancellor's change of heart.

He added: "We've been lobbying hard, and, fingers crossed, it looks like the government has been listening to us."

"This doesn't mean that tomorrow there's going to be hundreds of bobbies on the beat and everything will be rosy, but we're coming to the end of some very damaging cuts."

"I strongly believe that if we'd been hit with more, it would have been unsustainable, and this has given us some breathing space and some hope, so we're really pleased."

Police and crime commissioner Simon Hayes added: "I'm pleased that the danger to public safety of more cuts has now been recognised."

He continued: "We will continue to provide this essential and efficient service which has been shown as good value for money to residents."

Funding given for Popley improvements

THE borough council has approved over half a million pounds of funding for two Popley community facilities.

An increase in population to the area has prompted plans to build extensions at both Melrose Community Centre and St Gabriel's Church.

Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's cabinet approved the grant of £343,800 on Tuesday to double the size of the Melrose centre in Abbey Road, as well as building a new kitchen and shower room and making improvements to lighting, internet and heating.

A total of £275,000 will also be spent on St Gabriel's in Tewkesbury Close to include a large meeting room, a large kitchen and new toilets - with community groups such as the Scouts set to benefit as a result.

The development is in the second stage of a three-phase project in changes funded by the council's Local Infrastructure Fund, due to be completed by the end of next year.

Cabinet member for communities, service delivery and improvement, Cllr Robert Tate, said: "I am pleased to support these two programmes in Popley, which will provide much better facilities for local groups."

"Extending the premises at Melrose Community Centre and St Gabriel's will make a real difference to the lives of local people."

RSPCA warning

BASINGSTOKE: The RSPCA has urged residents to be careful when throwing things away after a hedgehog found injured in Basingstoke died from wounds caused by an elastic band.

A mother and daughter called the wildlife charity after discovering the nocturnal animal behaving strangely and stumbling around the streets in daylight on Wednesday, November 18.

The hedgehog was taken to Hart Wildlife Hospital near Alton, but was put down two days later due to an infection caused by the band.

Vets believe it had been entangled on the hedgehog for a number of months.

RSPCA inspector Nikki Denham said: "This poor hedgehog was clearly uncomfortable."

"His wounds from the elastic band being wrapped around him so tight had left him not only raw and very sore but struggling with a nasty infection that had really taken hold of him."

Silver standard

HARTLEY WINTNEY: A junior school has been handed an eco-award for its sustainability work.

Greenfields Junior School in Hartley Wintney was presented with the Eco-School's Silver Award for its programme of improving recycling by not throwing away old pens and unused bins.

The Green Lane school was handed the honour by Hart District Council's biodiversity officer Dr Paul Howe on Thursday, November 12.

House haven set up for domestic abuse victims

VICTIMS of domestic abuse from Basingstoke are set to benefit from a new safe house in the town.

The two-bedroom house is one of five due to be provided across the county as part of a scheme from housing association Sentinel Housing.

Homes in East Hampshire, Hart, Havant and Rushmoor will also be built as part of the project, which is led by Hart District Council's Hampshire Making Safe Scheme.

The project was launched last Wednesday to coincide with the start of domestic violence campaign 16 Days of Action.

Sentinel's assistant director of development delivery, Julie Porter, said: "We offer a range of support to help people suffering from domestic abuse and are really pleased that we're able to help even further as part of this project."

"We're working with local authorities in East Hants, Basingstoke, Hart, Havant and Rushmoor to provide a two-bedroom safe home in each area for those who suffer from domestic abuse."

"We believe that making people safe in our communities is really important, and we're proud to be giving additional support to some of our most vulnerable customers."

Statistics have revealed that 25 per cent of women and 16 per cent of men are affected respectively in their lifetimes, while there have been over 10,000 domestic incidents in Hampshire this year.

A total of £905,000 provided by the Department for Communities and Local Government (DCLG) and the area's relevant district councils will help fund the Hampshire Making Safe Scheme project.

Project coordinator Kirsty Jenkins said: "It's fantastic that we've been able to work with a range of partners to get the ball rolling on a complex project of this scale."

"We're thrilled that Sentinel is working with us on the project, to provide the much needed family sized homes across Hampshire."

"We've got families who have been living in shared accommodation in refuges across Hampshire who are now ready to move into the community, where they can be supported by a team of outreach workers."

Officers fitted with body worn video

COMMUNITY safety patrol- anti-social behaviour. Officers will now be able to catch offences on camera after helping hand in dealing with being fitted with new body worn video (BWV) surveillance equipment.

The move comes following a successful four-week trial carried out across the borough in September.

Both Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's community safety patrol officers and parking attendants will now carry the visible waterproof cameras, which can be utilised as evidence in legal proceedings and help deter aggression from members of the public.

Cabinet member for communities, service delivery and improvement, Cllr Robert Tate, said: "Body-worn video cameras will help to improve safety for our patrol teams and surveillance on the streets of Basingstoke and Deane."

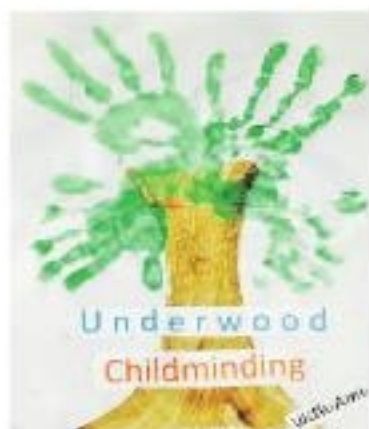

"Following the trial the team said it was helpful when dealing with incidents with some people who looked like they were about to confront them changed their mind once they saw the camera and walked away and where people were abusive or threatening, they were able to gain evidence if they needed to take further action."

Town centre to turn into wonderland

THE Top of Town will be turned into a winter wonderland from Midday tomorrow as Basingstoke gets in the festive mood.

People of all ages are being invited to the historic heart of the town centre to take part in a whole range of free Christmas-themed activities.

Traditional festive tunes, street theatre entertainment including street buskers, gift stalls and yuletide food treats will be on offer until 8pm, with three hours' free parking also available to visitors.

Children can visit a live animal farm nativity and follow an Elf Trail to Santa's grotto, while Mother Christmas will hand out crackers.

Youngsters will also be able to take part in a family-friendly unwrapping of the nativity story at the United Reformed Church.

And the festivities will be completed in spectacular fashion as Market Place is then lit up with twinkling lights, before the switch-on of the Top of Town Christmas tree just before 8pm.

Town Centre Programme leader Cllr Terri Reid said: "This year's Christmas at the Top of Town event offers great festive fun for all - and there's free parking for visitors too."

"The programme has something for everybody to enjoy and the evening finale promises to be very memorable."

Apprenticeship rates soar in Basingstoke

BASINGSTOKE MP Maria Miller has welcomed new figures showing 1,020 new apprenticeships have been started in the town in the last year.

The stats revealed Basingstoke to be one of the top areas in south east England at helping youngsters on to the career ladder - following a rise of over seven per cent in 2014/15.

In total 4,890 new apprenticeships have been started at businesses across the town since 2010, according to the figures released by the Skills Funding Agency.

And with Basingstoke's improvement nearly mirroring the region's eight per cent rise in job opportunities for youngsters in the last year, Mrs Miller has labelled the findings as "fantastic news".

She said: "Apprenticeships have been at the heart of our plan to deliver a more secure future for young people, and as Conservatives we are committed to go even further over the next five years."

"These figures are fantastic news, and 4,890 new apprenticeships since 2010 means more young people in Basingstoke getting the skills to succeed and get on in life."

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

"We are giving young people proper training and the prospect of a better future."

A total of 2.4million apprenticeships have been started across the country over the last five years, with the government now promising to deliver three million more over the next five years.

This rise is to be funded by a new apprenticeship levy of 0.5 per cent on company payrolls, with chancellor George Osborne announcing the change as part of plans to raise £3billion a year in his Autumn statement last Wednesday.

Mrs Miller added: "We have made a commitment in our manifesto to deliver three million more high quality apprenticeships by 2020."

"Millions of young people are getting a good start in life, learning a trade, and knowing the purpose and pride that comes with that."

New appeal after more graffiti found

POLICE have made a renewed appeal to residents after a fifth offensive message was found on a Basingstoke building.

Unpleasant graffiti written in black spray paint was found sprayed on a wall at Fairfield's Primary School in Council Road.

The incident took place at some point overnight last Monday and followed four similar offences at three other locations days earlier.

Two of the offences took place at the Territorial Army building in Penrith Road on Friday, November 20 and Saturday, November 21.

And further criminal damage was also found by residents at electrical retailer Maplin's store in Winchester Road and on a wall at All Saints Church in Southern Road late on Friday and Saturday respectively.

Sergeant Trevor Taylor from Basingstoke police station said: "Incidents like these can be damaging to local communities and will not be tolerated."

"Anyone who engages in such activity is committing a criminal offence which could result in a custodial sentence."

"Do you know of someone who has been in possession of a large volume of black spray paint recently?"

"Have you seen somebody purchasing it, or seen spray paint stashed away?"

Call 101 with information.

NATHAN Detroit is desperate: he needs money for an illegal dice game, and he needs it fast.

Not to mention a 14 year engagement with night-club singer Miss Adelaide whose patience is finally running out. Enter notorious gambler Sky Masterson, a guy who can never turn down a bet, and straight-laced missionary Sarah Brown, a doll with a heart of ice. The wager: Sky has to romance Sarah by taking her to Havana for dinner and in return he'll provide a dozen 'sinners' for Sarah's mission. Surely this is one bet Nathan absolutely can't lose?

The sizzling New York tale of gamblers, gangsters and nightclub singers will leave you 'walking on air' (Daily Telegraph) with a glorious evening featuring some of Broadway's greatest show-stopping tunes, including Luck Be a Lady, Sit Down You're Rockin' the Boat and My Time of Day. With dazzling choreography by world-renowned Cuban ballet star Carlos Acosta and Andrew Wright

Closing date: Friday, Dec 18th

(Singin' in the Rain and Barnum), and direction from New York's Gordon Greenberg, this 'production leaves the whole audience purring with pleasure'. (Times) This is one feel-good show you won't want to miss.

A cast and orchestra of over 40 is led by Sophie Thompson as the long-suffering Miss Adelaide, David Haig as Nathan with Jamie Parker reprising his terrific Sky Masterson and Siubhan Harrison as the pious Salvation Army sergeant, Sarah Brown.

We have two pairs of tickets to this great show and to be in with a chance of winning one just answer the following question:

Q: This production of Guys and Dolls comes to the West End after a sell-out season at which theatre? The Chichester Festival Theatre, Southwark Playhouse or Leicester Curve Theatre?

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

DISCOVER A CAREER IN TEACHING

Teacher information evening Wednesday 6th January 2016, 6pm-8pm

Teacher information evening

The Trinity Partnership currently has excellent training opportunities for teaching, both in primary and secondary schools.

This evening is for anyone who is considering training to teach, including teaching assistants, career changers, teachers trained overseas, and those graduating in Summer 2016.

If you are interested in finding out more about getting into secondary/primary teaching, come along to meet current Schools Direct trainees and newly qualified teachers; plus talk with our specialist school mentors and University of Reading tutors who will be happy to answer your questions.

The evening will be mainly informal with some short presentations.

Training is provided in the Trinity Partnership schools, working together with the University of Reading. All courses lead to Qualified Teacher Status (QTS). You can also opt to do the PGCE course, which leads to 60 Masters credits. You may also be eligible for a salaried place or a bursary (up to £30k).

Billy's valuable lesson in the Snow Dragon

BILLY the Goat is used to getting everything he wants from his parents, so when he doesn't he steals from his friends.

So on New Year's Eve when Billy is looking forward to the annual visit of the legendary Snow Dragon that will bring him even more goodies during the night, he bumps into some hungry wolves in the forest.

And the rest of the story unfolds when 'The Snow Dragon' visits The Haymarket in Basingstoke from Wednesday, December 4 to Saturday, December 12.

"There is so much in here for adults," actor Alistair Chisholm, who plays Spike the Hedgehog in the production, told the Observer.

"A good story is a good story whatever the age and it is a lovely experience to share with your young ones, which can give you plenty to talk about."

"The Snow Dragon' has performed in Basingstoke before but this is my first time and I'm really looking forward to it'.

It stars Louise Mai Newberry as Rosie the Piglet, William Croft as Billy

By James Richings

the Goat and Alistair who plays Spike, Billy's dad and a wolf.

The three performers are aiming to make each show at the Wote Street venue a memorable experience for children.

The use of comedy, story-telling, catchy songs, special lighting and an imaginative set will be used during the eight-day run.

And the thought of entertaining an audience brings satisfaction to Alistair.

"I love performing for young people and families and it is lovely to part of a family's build-up to Christmas," he said.

"Youngsters can experience stories in a safe environment with their adult, and in a world of many distractions."

"It is great to be able to sit and give all your concentration over to one thing."

"Also, live theatre is very inclusive. It is a performance that is for this audience only and in live theatre we can talk directly to the audience and they sometimes talk back to us - that is really exciting."

Tickets cost from £8 to £12, with the show being suitable for anyone over the age of three.

There will also be a relaxed version of the production on Thursday, December 10, which is for children who are on the autistic spectrum or who suffer from other disabilities.

The relaxed show starts at 1pm.

Get ready for panto season!

IT'S that time of year when the beautiful dames, evil villains and dashing heroes return to the stage, as panto season is well and truly back.

And this year's festive show taking place at The Anvil is an adaptation of 'Jack and the Beanstalk', which runs from Thursday, December 10 to Sunday, January 3.

"I'm playing Jack so I'm very excited, and since it is my first ever pantomime I'm a little bit nervous," children's presenter and former Pop Idol runner-up Mark Rhodes told the Observer.

"It is the first time that I have done any theatre because I mainly do TV work, so it's a completely different art form.

"The first day of rehearsal felt like the first day of school but everyone has made me feel really welcome and I'm looking forward to getting the first few shows done, so you can chill out and relax a bit more."

Mark became a regular face on our TV screens back in 2003 when the then 22-year-old auditioned for Pop Idol, in which he finished second on the talent show to Scotswoman Michelle McManus.

Despite not winning the competition, Mark soon became part of a double act as he joined forces with fellow Pop Idol finalist Sam Nixon.

By James Richings

The duo would go on to become two of the most popular TV presenters in Britain.

And in 2004, Sam and Mark achieved a UK number one with their version of the well-known Beatles hit 'With a Little Help from My Friends'.

Away from music, the two have also won a number of prestigious accolades, which includes picking up two BAFTA awards for best children's TV presenters.

"I have always wanted to do theatre in one aspect or another and panto is a fun way of getting into that," he said.

"Our pantomime is aimed at a family audience which is the most important thing because the parents have to enjoy as well as the kids.

"There are many gags in there for the children, there will be gags that will go straight over their heads along with physical comedy with a lot of fun for everyone to enjoy."

Tickets cost from £19.50 to £24.50 at the Churchill Way venue.

And on Wednesday, December 23, there will be a relaxed performance of the pantomime which is for children who on the autistic spectrum or who have other disabilities.

Scottish Car of the Year announced

THE new Vauxhall Astra made a bold statement by winning the Scottish Car of the Year Award on Friday.

It triumphed in three different categories: Family Car of the Year, Eco Car of the Year and overall Car of the Year.

The award was presented by the Association of Scottish Motoring Writers at the Marriott Dalmahoy Hotel in Edinburgh.

President of the Association of Scottish Motoring Writers, Alisdair Suttie, said: "2015 has been an amazing year for new cars which made the judges' decisions harder than ever, so credit to Vauxhall that it's new Astra won out."

"The Astra sets new standards with the way it drives, its efficiency and the quality of its construction and materials and not only is it a pleasure to drive, it's also a resounding endorsement of British workmanship."

The award ceremony was also a memorable night for Mazda.

The Japanese manufacturer also won a hat-trick of awards with the Mazda2 Supermini, MX-5 Drop Top and the CX-3 Crossover all winning their respective awards.

By James Richings

And Land Rover's new Ingenium engine helped the Land Rover Discovery Sport win the Diesel title.

It was also a good day for Jaguar - Land Rover's sister company - as the new XE saloon fought off fierce competition to win the Executive Car category.

Last year's overall winner Hyundai was back on stage in the Design and Innovation Award for its ix35 Hydrogen fuel cell car, while Volvo showed its prowess in the SUV category won by its XC90.

At the other end of the size scale, Audi TT's sleek design helped the car reach the top spot in the Coupé category.

While Honda Civic Type R impressed judges to win the Hot Hatch section of the awards.

The President's Award celebrating exceptional contributions in the car world went to Gordon and Jillian Shedden.

The couple, including 2015 British Touring Car Champion Gordon, have been recognised following their support to promote motorsport in Scotland.

Driver and Vehicle
Licensing Agency

End of the road for your vehicle?

Responsible drivers scrap their vehicles at an Authorised Treatment Facility (ATF).

Because only an ATF can legally scrap a vehicle.

That means any pollutants will be made safe before it's recycled in an environmentally friendly way.

What's more, for certain types of vehicle you'll get a DVLA approved Certificate of Destruction (CoD). A CoD proves the ATF has told DVLA your vehicle has been scrapped and is no longer your responsibility. www.direct.gov.uk/motoring

Dragons defeated by Havant in late cup loss

BASINGSTOKE Town lost their sixth game on the bounce on Saturday in new manager Michael Gilkes' first match in charge.

The Dragons conceded 10 minutes from time to lose 2-1 at Havant and Waterlooville to exit the FA Trophy at the third qualifying round stage.

Striker Liam Enver-Marum had earlier cancelled out a fourth-minute James Hayter header from the penalty spot to finally end his side's 400-minute wait for a goal.

But the ending of that particular drought was one of few positives on another frustrating day for Basingstoke that saw them once again do more than enough to at least force a replay.

Gilkes handed a first Town start to Reading loanee Dom Hyam following the centre back's move to the club last Thursday until the New Year, while Callum Buckley also appeared in the line up for the first time.

And it was Town who had the first chance of the match after just 30 seconds as striker Chris Flood forced a strong save from Hawks keeper Ryan Young.

But it was the hosts who would strike first soon after as Ben Swallow drove down the right hand wing before lifting in a dangerous cross for former AFC Bournemouth striker Hayter to head home.

Flood brought another save out of Young with a low shot just a minute later, before Matt Paterson then saw his shot from the edge of the box expertly tipped around the post by Town stopper Aaron Howe in a fast and frenetic start.

Enver-Marum was the next player to come close as his 30 yard drive just cleared the crossbar, while Hyam then prodded the ball inches wide from six yards when he should have done better.

But Basingstoke claimed a deserved equaliser from the penalty spot in the 27th minute, with Enver-Marum sending Young the wrong way with his powerful effort.

The big striker then forced a top save from the Havant keeper after the break with a stinging drive, before Scott Donnelly was denied from range by Howe in the 54th minute as both sides chased a second.

Forward Lloyd Macklin fired a rare second half chance straight

• There was more disappointment for Basingstoke Town's players on Saturday following yet another defeat at the keeper when well placed 17 minutes from time, and he was made to pay for that miss soon after as Ben Swallow curled a beauty into the far corner from the edge of the box to settle the tie.

Basingstoke were due to face Dartford at home in the National League South on Tuesday, but this match has now been postponed until next Saturday, meaning they will next be in action this Saturday away at Bishops Cleeve in the league.

Gilkes calls for more focus

MICHAEL Gilkes has told his Basingstoke Town squad to up their game following Saturday's 2-1 loss to Havant and Waterlooville.

The new Dragons boss felt his side did more than enough to at least force a replay in the FA Trophy third qualifying round tie.

But after being unable to stop the club from picking up its sixth loss on the trot in a run that has seen Basingstoke drop to the bottom of the National League South, Gilkes has admitted that his side haven't been good enough this term.

He said: "I'm disappointed not to get the result because we had numerous chances to get ahead and take control of the game. "But we didn't have our shooting boots on, and it took a very good goal to beat us."

"We need more focus as a team because we're being punished. "The reality for me is this season we haven't been good enough and our record shows this."

Town have only claimed five wins in all competitions this season, despite finishing in third place in the league with virtually the same set of players last campaign.

And while he pointed out that other teams' improvements had played a big part in the improved standard of the league, Gilkes admitted that his side had been guilty of not building on last term's success.

He added: "The problem with having a good season is that all your opponents know what to expect of you and raise their game."

"As a team we haven't raised our standards in response and if we think we can just do the same things as last season, that's not enough."

"We have to start winning games and to win games you have to put it in the net and not concede - football hasn't changed that much over the years so it's as simple as that."

Sport Bites

'Stoke beaten

HOCKEY: Basingstoke Hockey Club firsts lost for only the second time all season in Saturday's top of the table clash away to Bournemouth firsts.

The hosts came out on top 4-1 in a dominant display, with Dean Record grabbing a late consolation goal in a poor performance by 'Stoke.

Defeat ensured that the visitors remained in second spot in the Hampshire Surrey 1 table - six points behind unbeaten Bournemouth.

Basingstoke will look to return to winning ways this Saturday when they host Reigate Priory firsts, who sit five points behind them in fifth place.

Salmon departs

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town released versatile defender Will Salmon on Monday.

The 29-year-old joined the club from Met Police over the summer and went on to play in 10 games for the club, scoring once in the FA Cup third qualifying round.

A club statement said: "Manager Michael Gilkes wishes to place on record the club's thanks for his efforts this season and we wish him well for the future."

Baston signs

ICE HOCKEY: Basingstoke Bison have moved quickly to sign back up for injured goaltender Tomas Hladivsky.

The Slovak stopper picked up a lower body injury against the Hull Pirates over the weekend. And the Herd have responded by bringing Finnish-born Jon Baston to the Basingstoke Arena, following his release by Hull earlier this season.

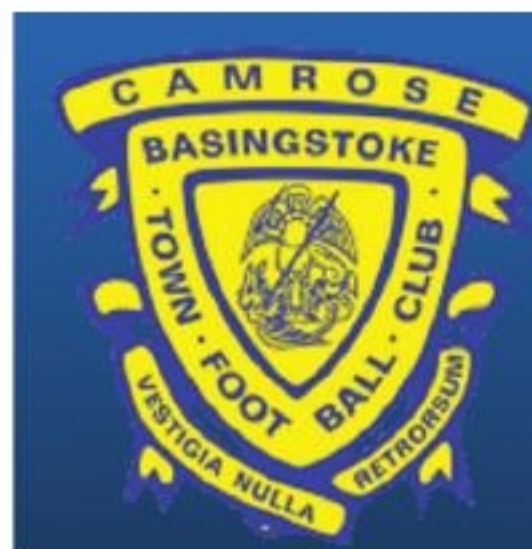

Bison director of hockey Doug Sheppard said: "Bringing Jon into the side was a no-brainer as we aim to maintain our title charge."

Title rival win

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies came out on top of their top of the table clash with Milton Keynes City on Sunday.

Megan James and Zoe Saunders both found the net in a 2-1 win at their rivals, with only goal difference now preventing Basingstoke from topping the Southern Region Women's Football League (SRWFL) Premier Division.

Town are next in action this Sunday when they travel to strugglers Bracknell Town Ladies in the league.

PIRATES PLUNDERED BY BRILLIANT BISON

A MAN-of-the-match display by new signing Rene Jarolin helped Basingstoke Bison extend their winning run on home ice to 12 games.

The Slovak forward arrived at the Herd last Thursday and put in a performance to remember just two days later to fire his new side to a 7-2 win over the Hull Pirates in the English Premier League (EPL).

Despite the comprehensive victory, the Stampede were knocked off their perch at the top of the table following the weekend's results, due to rivals Peterborough Phantoms and Milton Keynes Lightning both playing twice.

But director of hockey Doug Sheppard will not have given the table too much thought after yet another fine showing at the Basingstoke Arena.

Bison flew out of the blocks straight from the first face-off and got themselves in front after just 12 seconds as Joe Greener found Ciaran Long to slot home.

And they doubled their advantage two minutes later with another simple goal, as Greener tipped the puck between the pipes from in front of the net.

Basingstoke netminder Tomas Hladovsky denied the Pirates with a fine save on 7:12 - but his heroics came at a price as he had to be helped off the ice injured.

And more bad luck saw the visitors pull one back on 11:42 after Dominic Osman's deflected shot flew past substitute goaltender Dan Weller-Evans.

Bison responded in the perfect manner however, and re-established a two goal cushion on 15:17 when Declan Balmer combined with Joe Baird to play in top scorer Tomas Karpov who fired home.

And Jarolin claimed his first goal of the night on 27:35 from close range after good work from Greener, before the Slovak claimed his second two minutes later after moving into the zone and letting a shot go.

Captain Aaron Connolly was next to get on the scoresheet midway through the final period after converting the powerplay with help from Jarolin and Stuart Mogg.

Pasi Salonen pulled one back for Hull on 48:40, before Ryan Watt grabbed a seventh for the Stampede with 23 seconds remaining to seal another win.

Basingstoke will return to action with matches against Telford Tigers and Manchester Phoenix this Saturday and Sunday respectively.
